Congressional Travel
Abroad in Last Year
Cost Taxpayer 718.218

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional travelers have reported spending $718,218 last year, running the two-year travel costs of the 89th Congress to $1.4 million.

The final accounting of the overseas expenses of the House and Senate committees appeared Tuesday in the Congressional Record.

A lame duck congressman who toured Europe after his defeat and three others who took trips at the taxpayers' expense after they already had decided to leave Congress were among the travelers.

Details of their journeys:
— Rep. Winfield K. Denton,
D-Ind., lost his bid for re-election, then went to Europe as a delegate to an international legislators' conference.

— Rep. John C. Kunkel, R-Pa., toured Asia and Europe for a month at a total expense of $3-500 after Congress had adjournaled and long after he had announced his retirement.

— Rep. Walter Rogers, D-Tex., announced his retirement in July. A month before Congress adjourned he took off on a tour of Europe that lasted six weeks and cost $3,970.

— Rep. Robert E. Sweeney, D-Ohio, quit Congress to run for attorney general of Ohio. After Congress adjourned — and after he lost the Ohio race — he visited Morocco, Italy, Spain and France at a cost of $1,800.

Actually, a majority of the members stay home. In the House, which has 435 members, only 154 took trips, but many of them took more than one and some took three or four. Less than half the 100 senators traveled.

McQueen Places
His Footprints

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Steve McQueen is the 153rd actor to place his footprints and hand-prints in the forecourt of Grau-man's Chinese Theater.

McQueen went through the traditional ceremony in let cement Tuesday.

Capt. Cook named the Hawaiian Islands the Sandwich Islands after his patron, Lord Sandwich, but the name fell into disuse.

Supertanker
Salvage
Is Doubtful

By GRANVILLE J. WATTS
LAND'S END, England (AP) —
New attempts were planned today to salvage the blast-wrecked American supertanker Torrey Canyon despite an official warning that the $15-million ship could blow up any time.

Undeterred by an engine-room explosion that killed a Dutch salvage expert Tuesday, salvage tugmen stood by to re-board the 61,263-ton ship lying across the notorious Seven Stones Reef.

Eight thousand soldiers and sailors were thrown into the battle to keep Britain's southern beaches from being ruined by the millions of gallons of crude oil oozing from the tanker's split holds.

The navy said the huge, pear-shaped oil slick was drifting with the tides only eight miles off Land's End, Britain's southwestern tip, and menacing the golden beaches of Cornwall. The black pool of oil stretched 35 miles southeast of the reef and was 20 miles wide in parts.

The Defense Ministry expressed anxiety over the renewed salvage operations. With fumes probably filling the tanker from some 80,000 tons of oil still in its holds, a ministry spokesman said, "It needs only a spark to set the whole lot off."

The explosion Tuesday came as 18 salvage men pumped compressed air below decks in an attempt to make the tanker buoyant enough to lift her off the reef on a high tide.

Capt. Hans Stahl, 36, who was in charge of a salvage team from the Dutch Wijsmuller organization, was struck by a hatch cover and knocked overboard. He died aboard a tug bringing him ashore. Ten other men were hurt.

Matthew Thomson, vice president of the Union Oil Company of California, owners of the Tor-rey Canyon, said salvage operations would go on.

Missile System Is Endorsed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate again has endorsed a U.S. antiballistic missile system — and started scrapping immediately over which cities should be protected.

Passed 86 to 2 Tuesday and sent to the House was a bill authorizing expenditure of $20.8 billion for defense in the year beginning July 1 — including $377 million to start installing the antimissile system.

The measure sparked a heated exchange between Sens. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., and Strom Thurmond, R-S.C.

Clark, noting that Charleston,
S.C., is included in the Pentagon's priority list of 25 cities to get antimissile protection, attributed it to the influence of Chairman L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., of the House Armed Services Committee.

Reporters
Subpoenaed
by Jury

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two Arkansas Gazette reporters have been subpoenaed by the Pulaski County Grand Jury for questioning today in the grand jury's investigation of an alleged bribe regarding a gambling bill passed by the Arkansas General Assembly.

The two reporters, Jerol Car-rison and Jack Baker, wrote articles about the case for the Gazette.

The investigation is into a statement by Rep. Gayle Windsor Jr. of Little Rock that he was offered $1,000 to vote for the casino gambling measure, which Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller vetoed.

Ft. Smith to Vote Tuesday

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) —
Voters here will go to the polls next Tuesday to decide on a proposal to adopt the city administrator form of government.

The city commission form of government is now used here.
Act 36 of the recent General Assembly allows cities to adopt an administrator form of government.

Thai Bases Available to U.S. Bombers

BANGKOK, Thailand, (AP) —
The government announced today it has decided to allow "partial use" of military installations at Utapao Air Base in southern Thailand by U.S. forces in order to help bring the war in Vietnam to a quick end.

The announcement added this was done at a request of the U.S. government.

The announcement, however,
did not say what type of aircraft would be allowed to use installations at Utapao which has an 11-500-foot airstrip.

A Thai official said earlier that the Thai Cabinet had agreed to permit U.S. Air Force B52 bombers to use Utapao at Sattahip to fly missions against Communist targets in Vietnam.

The announcement said the Thai government "believes that this measure, by substantially increasing the striking potential of the air arms and by avoiding early detection by the Communist side, will have the effect of bringing the war to a speedier ending thereby enabling peace to be restored within the shortest possible time."

It was not known when the B52s will begin using the Utapao airbase.

The official who disclosed the B52 involvement said precautionary measures were being taken to prevent any retaliatory steps by the Communists against Thailand. The official declined to elaborate on this aspect.

Mrs. Roosevelt
Suffers Injuries

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs.
Elliott Roosevelt has suffered slight injuries during a fire in a Park Avenue office building.

The wife of the mayor of Miami Beach, Fla., was one of six persons injured during Tuesday's blaze which began in a hallway trashfire.

She had been in the offices of Doubleday & Co. in connection with the July publication of her book "I Love a Roosevelt."

As she opened a door to leave, flames in the hallway erupted in her face and singed her hair.

Calls Book Subsidy
in Secret

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen.
J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., tried Tuesday to pin down who authorized the publishing of books giving the administration's viewpoint on Vietnam and the Dominican Republic.

Fulbright termed "subsidy in secret" the distribution of books, magazines and films overseas that are not labeled
"paid for by the USA."

The meeting dealt with efforts of the United States Information Agency to reactivate a program to support private distribution of the information series.

He said, "The subsidy in secret seems to me to be doubly subversive."

USIA representatives, often at a loss of words during the hearing, said the books in question were handled by a different branch of the agency.

Fulbright made his protest at a meeting of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee of which he is chairman.

Governor Makes
a Good Democrat

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — As Republican governor of Colorado and chairman of the Republican Governors' Association,
John A. Love makes a good Democrat.

At least that appears to be the sentiment of Democratic National Chairman John M. Bailey.

In a letter addressed to the governor, Bailey asked Love for a contribution "to strengthen the voice of the Democratic party."

Love, in his reply to the mis-sent letter, told Bailey "It was pleasant to hear from you" and wished the Democratic chairman success in his fund drive.

But the governor had a favor
to ask:

"If your letter collects a surplus of funds, would you send the excess to the Republican National Committee, 1625 I St.,
N.W., Washington, D.C.?"

Costly Bridge
May Be a White Elephant

LISBON, Portugal, (AP) —
Nearly a year after inaugurating the $75-million Salazar Bridge—the world's fifth longest —Portuguese are wondering whether the span has turned out to be a white elephant.

The toll bridge straddles the Tagus River, linking Lisbon with the underdeveloped agricultural south, but the traffic hasn't come up to expectations.

Many workers, who make up the bulk of the commuters across the river, cannot afford the 28-cent roundtrip bus fare and prefer the flat-bottomed ferries costing 6 cents or less.

More than 50,000 workers recently signed a petition protesting the higher bus fare.

Why Does George Check Outstanding Claims Daily?

He doesn't have to. Most agents don't. Many agents simply mail loss reports to the Company and forget them. They think by some magic formula all will turn out well. George knows it doesn't work that way. He knows that in spite of good intentions of the Company to pay promptly, sometimes things can go wrong. A report might be lost in the mail, a doctor's bill isn't mailed, needed estimates aren't furnished by the claimant, the insured misses an appointment with the adjuster. George figures he is paid to take care of all the details, and to follow through on every claim. So he does, every day.

Bob Thomas at the Movies

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The Hollywood premier of "A Countess from Hong Kong" had all the aspects of disaster — and not merely because it was a benefit to help rescue art damaged in the recent Italian floods.

Dire reports had been received about the film, the most publicized since "Cleopatra." It was newsworthy because it returned Charles Chaplin to film making after a lengthy absence. Only once before — "A Woman of Paris," 1923 — had he written and directed a film in which he did not star. He makes two brief appearances as a ship's steward.

The premiere in London had been accompanied by critical blasts, and New York reviewers also rapped the movie. So those who attended last weekend's premiere at the Hollywood Pantages did so with scant hope.

Yet "A Countess from Hong Kong" played better here than in any of its premieres, according to the film's producer Jerry Epstein. And the reviews appear to be friendlier than those of London and New York.

As for this moviegoer's opinion, "A Countess from Hong Kong" seemed neither as bad as the advance reports indicated nor as good as it should have been. On the plus side, there are some comedy moments that do provide belly laughs. The action moves along, however inane, and it is apparent that Charlie Chaplin is in charge at all times.

But some basic faults mitigate against success. There is a prologue before the titles that sets a false tone for the film. The cutting in the early scenes is chaotic, as though done by amateurs. Chaplin's overripe musical score weighs down the intended gaiety.

Even the camera work is uneven. Sophia Loren is stunningly photographed, but Marlon Brando's face appears in varying shades of green, purple and puce.

These matters could have been overlooked if "A Countess from Hong Kong" had been screamingly funny. It isn't. The reason is not merely that Chaplin at 77 no longer has a sureness of touch. The basic error was in his choice of stars.

Not all actors can play comedy, even with Chaplin to guide them. Both Brando and Miss Loren lack the lightness of touch to carry off this trifle.

JUST CALL HER PATSY

Dear Helen: I recently met a so-called man, except he isn't if you know what I mean. He dislikes women.

However, he brags about hooking this young woman who has bought him a $700 television, two tape recorders, a hat for $25 — and then this will kill you, she bought for herself a $400 diamond ring which she delights in telling her friends is her engagement ring.

Heaven help her, Helen. He gets a kick out of saying, "The money's there, and I'm going to get some if I!"

How low-down can a man get? — THE INSIDE STORY

Dear IS: . . . As low as a woman's stupidity will allow. And it appears the poor gal has a boundless amount. When you buy a man, you never get one.—H.

Dear Helen: We are both college graduates, in our early 30's in a good income bracket. My husband is active in church and civic affairs, and we're well respected.

My big problem is pornographic books. Our basement has so many boxes of this cheap mostly pocket-book type of junk that storage is a problem. One dresser drawer now has $58.50 worth of the trash. Some are even expensive books.

He thinks there's nothing wrong with it, and that I'm a prude. He says he can't get rid of the books because he has no place to take them, but we have three children and surely they'll come across them someday.

Am I a prude or is he sick? — READER

Dear Reader: I wouldn't say a man is "sick" simply because he likes to read sexy books — and I wonder if "pornography" is the right word for them. Why not compromise? Get rid of the oldies—the trash can is fine if you can't give them away. Then set a definite monthly limit on book purchases. And read along with your husband. You may discover that what you think is terrible is no worse than parts of Shakespeare.—H.

Dear Helen: My wife thinks security is the only thing in life.

I want to try a new job that offers a great deal of challenge, but she wants me to stick with the dull desk work I have, because the retirement and benefits are good. Who wants to "exist" for 35 years, so you can "live" for maybe 10? This new job could mean a real career, and I'm young enough to take a chance. We haven't any children. What do you think?—BILL

Dear Bill: I'm with YOU! President Eisenhower said the ultimate security is a life sentence in a penitentiary—and that's just about equivalent to enduring a lifetime job you hate, because you're "chicken."—H.

Clay Wants Draft Board Overruled

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cassius Clay, who seems to have no worry about his opponent in tonight's title fight, is asking a Federal Court to overrule his draft board's earlier decision against him.

An attorney for the 25-year-old heavyweight boxing champion filed two motions Tuesday in the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in an effort to prevent Clay from being inducted into the armed services at Louisville, Ky., on April 11.

There was no indication when the court might rule on the motions.

One of the motions asked for a temporary restraining order to prevent Clay's induction because this would cause him "irreparable injury." The other motion sought permission to appeal a District Court decision that denied Clay such an injunction. The champion also has lost a number of draft board appeals.

Clay originally was deferred by his draft board because he did not pass the Army mental tests. Later he was reclassified 1-A but appealed the decision. One of the grounds he gave in the appeals was that he is a Black Muslim minister.

The motions filed in the Appeals Court did not mention religion. They were filed in the name of Muhammad Ali and named he also is known as Cassius Clay Jr.

Coach Quits, Will Take Up Babysitting

By RACHEL EBERLE
SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — A high school football coach who has resigned to go into the babysitting business says his teen-age daughter already is complaining of "illegal procedure."

Tom King, who is leaving coaching after 13 years at Clay High School, says the change will be hard and he's still not sure it will be permanent.

He admitted four successive losing seasons had something to do with his decision.

King, 38, is taking over a babysitting service at Fort Wayne.

His oldest daughter, Debbie, 13, has been ribbing him about interfering with her business. She makes 50 to 75 cents an hour babysitting but her father will be asking $1.15 to $1.25.

Debbie won't be able to join her father's babysitting service until she's 21.

The Kings have three other children - Dawn 12, Darcy 5 and Tommy 3 - but King says the closest he's come to babysitting has been as a playground recreation leader.

King, a native of Hornell, N.Y., worked three summers on the South Bend playgrounds after graduation from the University of Notre Dame in 1952.

Both King and his wife, the former Pat Koch of South Bend, call the babysitting move "the big switch."

Clay finished 52-51-2 through King's 11 years as head coach, and was 3-7 last season.

King plans to remain at Clay as a biology and health teacher.

He said he thinks he can pick out a good babysitter but he'll let his manager, a woman, do the hiring.

"A woman projects a better babysitting image," he said.

Baseball Fact Writer Dies

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Shirley C. Thompson, 69, co-author of the Encyclopedia of Baseball, died Tuesday at Long Beach Memorial Hospital after a prolonged bout with cancer.

He and the late Hy Turkin of the New York Daily News put out the first edition of the baseball facts book in 1951. There have been a total of five editions.

Assessment Reduction Is Sought

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Walter O'Malley, owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers, struck out Tuesday in a request before the County Assessment Appeals Board.

O'Malley was denied a reduction in assessed valuation of the Dodgers' Chavez Ravine Stadium from $3.3 million to $1.1 million.

O'Malley also sought a reduction in the assessed value of improvement from $4.1 million to $2.7 million.

He claims his properties were "grossly and intentionally" over-valued by the county assessor's office.

Swaggering Clay Ruled Favorite

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Everyone but Zora Folley and the small group around him seems to feel that the 34-year-old veteran is just another opponent for heavyweight champion Cassius Clay at Madison Square Garden tonight.

The swaggering, 25-year-old all-conquering Clay is a 5-1 favorite to whip the mild-mannered, quiet No. 1 contender in the televised 15-rounder.

There has been virtually no wagering on the outcome except for a reported few bets on whether the fight will go the distance. It's 5-13 that it doesn't go the limit and 5-9 it doesn't go 10 rounds.

Starting time is 10:30 p.m., EST.

It's a ripe situation for an upset along the lines of Clay's seventh round technical knockout of Sonny Liston as a 7-1 underdog Feb. 25, 1964, Jersey Joe Walcott's seventh round knockout of Ezzard Charles in 1951 at 6-1 odds and Jimmy Braddock's 15-round decision over the 10-1 favored Maxie Baer in 1935. All three were just considered opponents.

Clay, winner of all 28 of his pro fights and making his seventh title defense within a year and his ninth in all, seems supremely confident.

For a change he hasn't predicted the round but he has appeared as arrogant at times as a night club headwaiter with a packed house.

But Angelo Dundee, his shrewd trainer, has forecast a fourth round knockout victory for his charge. Earlier he had predicted it would end "somewhere between the seventh and 11th round."

Folley, unbeaten in his last 12 fights in a 3 1/2-year span, said "I'm going to win by decision or by a knockout. I'm going to be the next heavyweight champion."

He doesn't seem convincing. Still, the scientific challenger from Chandler, Ariz., has the tools to win if he gets lucky. He has a 74-74 won-lost-draw record, including 40 knockouts. He has been stopped five times, the last by Doug Jones in the seventh round on Dec. 15, 1962.

Despite the long odds, indicating the Korean War veteran hasn't a chance, the fight will do good business.

The Garden expects a crowd of upwards of 16,000 today between $300,000 and $400,000 at prices ranging from $8 to -50.

There will be national television into the homes by MSG-RKO General and closed circuit television into theaters and arenas in a couple of cities. New York and a 90-mile radius of the metropolis will be blacked out of the television.

Clay will earn about $300,000 on his 50 per cent of the Garden receipts and a $150,000 guarantee from the ancillaries—television, movies, etc.

Folley will collect about $70,000 on his 15 per cent of the gate and $25,000 from the ancillaries. His largest purse before was the $40,000 he received for being knocked out in the third round by Sonny Liston at Denver in 1960.

Whitey Ford Apparently Is Ready

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Whitey Ford, apparently recovered from the second operation on his pitching arm in two years, has signed his 16th major league contract with the New York Yankees.

The 38-year-old left-hander, who came to spring training as a non-roster player, said Tuesday his 1967 salary will be $65,000 — the same as last year.

Ford told the Yankees during the winter he would not accept a contract before proving he could help the club. He has appeared in three exhibition games, yielding only one run in his last outing — a five-inning stint against Los Angeles Monday.

"My arm feels stronger each time out," he said, "I believe I'll be able to go six or seven innings the next time and maybe eight after that."

Ford, who won only two games for the last-place Yankees in 1966 but has compiled a career mark of 234-102, underwent surgery after the 1965 season to correct a circulatory ailment in his left arm. A second operation was performed last Aug. 25, Ford said at that time he would go to Florida on a trial basis.

Burgess New Wrinkle to the Cleanup

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Chicago White Sox have added a new wrinkle to their spring clean - up project - Smokey Burgess and a cloud of dust.

Burgess, baseball's premier pinch hitter, delivered for the first time this spring Tuesday and speedster Buddy Bradford took it from there as the White Sox edged Kansas City 5-4 in 10 innings for a 9-3 exhibition record — best in the majors.

Bradford ran for Burgess after the 40-year-old round man, who holds the all-time career record of 136 pinch hits, led off the 10th by stroking a pinch single.

The rookie outfielder then stole second, took third on a passed ball and — after two intentional walks filled the bases — raced home with the winning run on Tommie Agee's sacrifice fly.

While the White Sox stayed ahead of the pack on Florida's spring circuit, the San Francisco Giants whipped the Chicago Cubs 8-4 at Phoenix, Ariz., for their fifth straight Cactus League victory.

The Cubs held Willie Mays hitless for the first time in 11 exhibition games, but San Francisco scored six runs in the first inning — three on Willie McCovey's bases-loaded double — off left-hander Ken Holtzman and breezed home. Caylord Perry pitched six strong innings for the Giants, 8-4 over-all.

The New York Yankees also won their eighth in 12 starts, overcoming a 4-0 deficit and nipping Detroit 5-4 on rookie Bill Robinson's run-scoring single in the ninth. Pitcher Al Downing homered for the Yanks after being tagged for a grand slam homer by Detroit's Jim Northrup.

Fred Valentine drove in five runs with two homers and two singles in Washington's 9-8 extra-inning victory over Atlanta. Tony Oliva doubled and homered for four RBIs as Minnesota topped Los Angeles 7-4 and Don Cardwell yielded only one hit in five innings as the New York Mets blanked Baltimore 2-0.

Elsewhere, Pittsburgh shaded St. Louis 5-4, Cincinnati trimmed Houston 9-4, California slugged Cleveland 10-4 and Philadelphia battered Boston 10-5.

The Senators weathered Atlanta homers by Hank Aaron, Mack Jones and Felipe Alou and nipped the Braves on a run-scoring double by Cap Peterson in the 10th inning.

Oliva, the American League's two-time batting champion, knocked in two runs with a third-inning double and smacked a two-run homer off Ron Perranoski in the fifth. Andy Kosko slammed a two-run pinch homer for the Twins.

Catcher Greg Goosen tripled home the Mets' first run in the seventh inning and scored on the front end of a double steal while Cardwell, Jerry Koosman and Floyd Weaver combined to check the world champion Orioles on five hits.

Rookie George Spriggs tripled in the ninth inning and scored on Gene Alley's single, lifting the Pirates past St. Louis. Spriggs also crashed a three-run inside-the-park homer.

Milt Pappas and Joe Nuxhall combined to check Houston on seven hits while the Reds capitalized on 10 hits, eight walks and a pair of wild pitches.

Bob Rodgers and Bubba Morton each drove in three runs for the Angels while left-hander George Brunet struck out eight Indians in his five-inning stint.

Johnny Callison paced Philadelphia's 14-hit attack with a single, double and triple. Tony Gonzalez rapped two doubles for the Phils, who bunched five of their runs in the fifth inning.

Royals Pull Upset Over the 76ers

By ED SCHUYLER JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Big O turned in his usual performance, but it was the Big C that caught the Philadelphia 76ers with their defenses down.

Oscar Robertson, often referred to as the Big O, scored 33 points and Connie Dierking, probably never before called the Big C, got 29 as the Cincinnati Royals upset the Philadelphia 76ers 120-116 in an opening game of the National Basketball Association playoffs.

In other playoff action, the defending world champion Boston Celtics thrashed the New York Knickerbockers 140-110, San Francisco trounced Los Angeles 124-108 and the St. Louis Hawks topped the Chicago Bulls 114-100.

"We definitely played the best ball of the season, and I was really up for this game," said 6-foot-10 Dierking, who averaged 9.3 points in regular season games.

"I really wanted to beat Philadelphia right in its own back yard."

If Dierking does as well in his own back yard tonight when the best-of-5 series resumes, the Eastern Division champion 76ers, who won eight of nine from Cincinnati in regular season play, could be in serious trouble. There are no other games scheduled tonight.

Dierking put the Royals ahead to stay by breaking a 66-66 tie with two quick baskets. Robertson clinched it with a field goal and two foul shots in the last 29 seconds.

The Big C also helped Jerry Lucas give the Royals an edge off the boards. Each pulled down 18 rebounds.

Wilt Chamberlain led Philadelphia with 41 points and 22 rebounds. Hal Greer got 23 points for the 76ers.

Boston wasted little time in letting New York know whose back yard the teams were playing in. Bailey Howell gave the Celtics a 2-0 lead on a jump shot, and the Celtics never trailed en route to their 20th straight victory over the Knickerbockers since March 17, 1965.

Sam Jones scored 38 points, John Havlicek 32 and Howell 23 for the Celtics, who are gunning for their ninth straight world championship. Jones hit 15 of 18, Havlicek 14 of 19 and Howell 10 of 14 from the field. Willis Reed led the visiting Knicks with 23.

Western Division winner San Francisco built up a 31-point lead early in the fourth quarter and coasted to victory over the Lakers, who played without star guard Jerry West, sidelined with an ankle injury. The game was played at Oakland, Calif.

Rick Barry of the Warriors, the NBA's leading scorer, didn't get a point in the first quarter, but Jeff Mullins took up the slack with 15. Mullins hurt an ankle in the second quarter and saw no further action.

Barry ended with 21 points, and former Laker Jim King added 22. Rookie Archie Clark scored 26 and Elgin Baylor 18 for Los Angeles.

Rookie Lou Hudson threw in 26 points and veteran Lenny Wilkens hit for 20, including 16 of 17 from the foul line, leading the Hawks past first-year Chicago at St. Louis.

Don Kojis and Bob Boozer scored 18 each for the Bulls, who rallied throughout most of the game.

The San Francisco-Los Angeles series switches to Los Angeles and the Hawks-Bulls set moves to Chicago Thursday night. The Celtics and Knicks will resume play in New York Saturday night.

Porks Going for 3-Game Sweep

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)

—Arkansas attempts today to sweep a three-game series from Buena Vista College of Iowa after the Razorbacks posted 6-1 and 4-3 triumphs in a double-play here Tuesday.

Sophomore pitcher Butch Hopkins fanned 15 batters, walked two and gave up only two hits in the opener for the Porks.

Butch Edwards, the winner in the nightcap in relief, stroked a two-run single with two down in the sixth to give Arkansas a come-from-behind victory.

Red Sox to Play Without a Captain

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer
WINTER HAVEN, Fla. (AP) — There will be no captain on the Boston Red Sox this year.

No clubhouse meetings of the players with the manager excluded. No overweight players. No coddled athletes.

Dick Williams, the new manager who comes to the big club after two successful seasons on the Toronto farm, has positive ideas about the job.

"The only meeting without the manager will be when we meet to split up the prize money," said Williams. "The players have enough problems playing ball without running the club. We will have one boss, or rather five bosses, me and the coaches. I will be the chairman of the board."

"We have been stressing fundamentals. Most of the young guys played for me, Bobby Doerr or Eddie Popowski. Bobby was our minor league trouble shooter for years. I managed Toronto for two years and Popowski was in Pittsburgh. Both are coaches this year."

"I think the others are finding out just by word of mouth what I expect. Everybody can't be treated the same way. Some need a pat on the back, others a kick. Whether it's a veteran or the newest rookie, if he makes a mistake he is going to hear about it."

Last spring when Billy Herman was managing the Red Sox the players held a meeting behind closed doors from which Herman was excluded. Carl Yastrzemski was named captain by Herman.

"No, we will not have a captain this year," said Williams. "I know what Billy had in mind. He hoped to give Yaz more responsibility and make him more aggressive. But a manager has to be the leader himself. I will be the captain."

Williams, who calls himself "the wrong Williams" is a former Brooklyn Dodger who played every position except pitcher and catcher during a career that took him to Brooklyn, Baltimore, Kansas City, Cleveland and Boston. This is his first big league managing job.

The new skipper has many of his Toronto players in camp, the players who helped him win the International League playoffs the last two years.

"I am optimistic about our talent," said Williams, no relation to Hall of Famer Ted Williams, a Red Sox vice president. "We have got to move up. Our job is to play as a unit and make the most of our potential."

26 Nominated for Oaklawn Handicap

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Twenty-six thoroughbreds were nominated Tuesday for the 14th running of the $50,000-added Oaklawn Handicap on April 1.

The list includes the winner of the last three Oaklawn Handicaps—Earl Allen's Swift Ruler and Gomer Evans' Gay Revoke.

Swift Ruler, the 1966 winner, finished fourth here earlier this year in the Southland Handicap behind three other nominees—John D. Aske's Dominar, E. E. Edgar and E. H. Hinds' Naughty Jester and Verna Lea Farm's The Dancer.

Gay Revoke, a 9-year-old favorite at Oaklawn, won the handicap in 1964 and 1965 but failed to win on his own since. He claimed his first victory in two years this week when Sheld of Valor beat him by a nose only to be disqualified from first to third, giving the victory to Gay Revoke.

Two interests nominated two horses. James Russo put in Jet Charter and Jet Avenger, full brothers who have notched victories in features here this spring. Holiday Stables nominated Power of Destiny and Tenzing 2nd.

Only one 3-year-old was nominated—Barbs Delight. Barbs Delight, owned by Guy Huguelet, Gene Spalding and Hal Steele Jr., was also nominated for the $50,000-added Arkansas Derby on April 8.

Other nominees are Grossman and Gold's Actor 2nd, W. Stadelman's Aurelius 2nd, Joe Shaver's BF's Own, U. R. Smith's Bo Hi Bo, Willhoff Brothers' Eladio, J. W. Burton's Famous Lover, M. G. Phipps' Francis U. W. Hal Bishop's Fusilier Boy, Mary Luckert and Donna Clifford's Habashe.

Alou Appears Most Improved Giant Player

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — "I'm worrying less and trying harder," said Jesus Alou, who looks to be the most improved player in the San Francisco Giants camp.

In early spring games, he has been hitting at a .400 clip while seeking to erase the memories of his injury-plagued 1966 season when he hit only .259 and at one point was sent to the minor leagues.

The youngest of the three major league Alou brothers from the Dominican Republic, Jesus hit .293 as a regular in 1965. He hurt his arm last spring and it was mid-summer before it felt good.

At the end of the season, he asked to be traded but was convinced there was a regular job for him with the Giants.

"Any time any ball player doesn't play as much as he thinks he should, he wants to be traded to a team where he can play," Alou related. "No one wants to sit on a ball club bench."

The Alou pride was hurt as much as anything. For while brother Matty won the National League batting title and Felipe was accorded honors with the Atlanta Braves, Jesus was in his slump.

The youngest Alou came to camp this year with his new attitude — "I'm going to try harder and worry less. Right now I'm satisfied with the way I feel," he said.

Marichal to Talk Over His Terms

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Hold-out righthander Juan Marichal promised to report for contract talks with the San Francisco Giants Saturday.

Even if Juan signs quickly, he may have lost his traditional season-opening starting assignment to Gaylord Perry, a 21-8 winner last year.

There's hardly time for Marichal to warm up before the opener April 11 in St. Louis.

Giants Manager Herman Franks talked Marichal, 25-6 in '66, into coming to Phoenix to talk terms-but not into yielding a single dollar from his $110,000 demand.

Juan was offered $100,000 by owner Horace Stoneham, who said that's final.

Perry, a National League sensation last year, is off to a great start in the Cactus League. Tuesday, he went six innings as the Giants beat the Cubs, 8-4. That's the longest any pitcher has gone this spring.

It also was the first game anyone has scored against Perry. The righthander has pitched 14 innings in 3 games, allowed 9 hits, 3 runs, and 2 walks and has fanned 9.

He yielded only one hit, rookie Clarence Jones' homer, in five innings, but gave up two singles and a triple for two runs in the sixth.

Marichal has upped his pay sensationally — $40,000, $50,000, $62,500 and $75,000 in successive years, 1963-66. And he has rewarded handsomely with 25-8, 21-8, 22-13 and 25-6 winning seasons.

Morehead Is Optioned to Toronto

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The pitchers are going further in the spring training exhibitions now, but few of them are going as far as Dave Morehead.

Morehead, a Boston right-hander who has won only one game since he threw a no-hitter against the Cleveland Indians Sept. 16, 1965, has been optioned to Toronto of the International League.

He was bothered with arm trouble most of last season and had a 1-2 record. He was bombed for 10 runs in 2-13 innings by the New York Mets last Thursday in his only exhibition appearance this season.

"We had to send him where he can get a chance to pitch," Boston Manager Dick Williams said Sunday in Winter Haven, Fla. "When he shows us that he's okay, we'll call him back."

But while Williams was disappointed with Morehead's performance, he got some good news from another quarter — slugger Tony Conigliaro is on his way back.

"Tony should be swinging a bat in a week and playing in two weeks," Red Sox physician Dr. Thomas Tierney said after examining Conigliaro in Boston.

Conigliaro suffered a hairline fracture of the shoulder when hit by a pitch in batting practice Saturday. He was flown to Boston for an examination, and returned to the team Sunday.

He didn't make it back in time for the game, but the Red Sox still pulled out a 7-6 decision over Detroit.

In the other Florida exhibitions, the New York Yankees beat the Mets 1-0 in Fort Lauderdale, St. Louis took the Chicago White Sox 7-5 at St. Petersburg, Houston nipped Pittsburgh 2-1 in 10 innings at Fort Myers, Cincinnati blanked Atlanta 4-0 in six innings at West Palm Beach, Los Angeles topped Baltimore 8-6 at Miami, and Philadelphia shut out Washington 4-0 at Clearwater.

PITCHING—Best starters in league. Jim Kaat (25-13, 2.74). Dave Boswell (12-5, 3.14). Mudcat Grant (13-13, 3.25). Add Dean Chance who is better than his 12-17 record with Angels last year. His ERA was 3.08. Jim Perry (11-7) is the fifth starter. Bullpen strong, too, with addition of Ron Kline (6-4, 2.40) from Washington. Al Worthington's age (38) doesn't seem to bother him. Appeared 65 times last season with a 6-3 record. 2.47 ERA. Jim Merritt (7-14, 3.38) can start or relieve. RATING—A.

Jim Kaat

Uhlender good fielder in center. Not much of a hitter (.226). Tovar may replace him. Twins hoping Walt Bond can make comeback. Has plenty of power. RATING—B.

CATCHING—Earl Battey still No. 1 on a staff that includes Russ Nixon, Jerry Zimmerman. Good depth here, plenty of experience. But Battey's average dipped to .255 last year. RATING—B.

BENCH—Rich Reese, a .327 hitter at Denver last year, expected to stick as sub first baseman. Andy Kosco, Sandy Valdespina the reserve outfielders. Neither can hit. A weak spot, except for reserve catchers. RATING—C.

SUMMARY—Will be closer than last year. Pitching improved with Kline. Chance. Need another outfielder. Bond could be the answer. Had couple of good years with Astros. PREDICTION—Good, but not that good, 2ND.

and sent the Dodgers to their victory over the Orioles. Dave Johnson had a three-run homer for the loser.

Chris Short, Ruben Gomez and Pedro Ramos combined for a four-hit shutout for the Phillies, Short allowing three hits in six innings.

Cleveland scored five runs in a wild first inning and coasted in against the Angels.

The Giants won their third straight, getting four runs in the first inning and 15 hits in all off Cub pitching.

A walk, a balk and Dick Green's run scoring single in the 10th won it for the A's in Venezuela. Kansas City has won three of four from the Twins in their South American trip.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Pollen Count Not Always
Accurate Hay Fever Guide

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Although the hay fever season for most victims doesn't start until August or September, when ragweed pollen dissemination is at its height, now is the time to start desensitization shots for the greatest protection.
Desensitization appears to work well in some victims and not so well in others. The reasons for this are not clear.
Some persons even continue their desensitization shots year-round with good results.
For those in whom desensi-tization is not effective, avoidance of the allergen (the pollen of ragweed or some other plant) is the next best form of treatment. This would mean planning a vacation in Canada or the northern states during the hay fever season.
Dr. Murray Albert of New York warns that many victims place too great a reliance on the daily pollen counts so popular on news broadcasts.
They are a poor guide to the actual exposure in any individual case because the counting methods are often grossly inaccurate. On the other hand their psychological effect may greatly influence a victim's symptoms.

When the source of the trouble cannot be avoided, antihistamines usually give adequate relief. Only if these measures have failed should the victim use such cortisone-like drugs as methylpredni-sone. A newer drug—oxymetazoline (Afrin), obtainable only on a doctor's prescription—is said to relieve hay fever symptoms and to have the advantage that there is no rebound (increased nasal stiffness) when its relief wears off.

Q—Are there any early warning signs of bone cancer?
Can it be discovered through a blood test? What is the treatment?

A—In one type of bone
cancer, multiple myeloma, certain changes in the blood proteins are diagnostic. In most bone cancers, however, the diagnosis is made by X-ray changes often appearing before there are any symptoms. Bone cancer causes pain only if the fibrous sheath surrounding the bone (the periosteum) is involved. Irradia-tion with X ray benefits some, but not all, bone cancers. A recent study indicates that freezing may kill bone cancers. This work is still experimental.

Jim: "We have been discussing the advantages of using the two club opening to cover hands that otherwise warrant a regular two bid in any suit or a strong no-trump. How about discussing the disadvantages?"

Oswald: "There is one great disadvantage. You lose an important round of bidding if your opponent's complete against you immediately."

Jim: "Here is a hand from a Connecticut tournament to illustrate this. South was New York expert Boris Raymond. Boris' hand was certainly worth an opening two but since he was using two clubs as artificial, Boris opened one club only. He had little to lose by doing this. There was small chance that someone would not find a bid against his one club opening."

Oswald: "It turned out that both East and West did. West had a very sound spade overcall and East raised his partner all the way to game. Boris bid five diamonds. He might have actually jumped to six diamonds but he had two reasons for bidding only five. The first was that Boris wanted to become declarer. The second was that a six diamond call might force North to give a preference to seven clubs with an unsatisfactory hand."

Jim: "As it was, West continued to five spades. North raised to six diamonds and when the bid came back to Boris he went to grand slam. You can't really blame West for falling into the trap and doubling."

Oswald: "If Boris had opened with an artificial two club bid the chances are that he would have had to show a suit at the six level, since West would still overcall and East might jump to five spades. As a matter of fact, that is exactly what happened at a couple of tables. South was forced to try six clubs and West was smart enough to pass and take his profit."

Some 596 Bodies in Actual Count

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
SAIGON (AP) — The Communist regiment which was shattered Tuesday in one of the Vietnam war's sharpest pitched battles lost at least 596 dead, and many more bodies were dragged from the battlefield, the U.S. Command said today.

The 2,500-man Communist force smashed into American positions in the jungles of Tay Ninh Province Tuesday. Air and artillery were still hitting their escape routes today, and U.S. troops were collecting bodies and weapons from the battlefield.

"How many dead they dragged off we really don't know," said the U.S. Infantry commander at the battle, Lt. Col. John A. Bender of Bremer-ton, Wash. "One of our platoons reported seeing them drag at least 100 bodies back into the jungle."

The fighting cost 31 American dead and 109 wounded. Among the dead were the pilot of an artillery spotter plane and his replacement, who was flying with him on an orientation flight when their tiny craft was shot down.

Two other Americans were killed and 10 were wounded when two U.S. Air Force F100 jets accidentally bombed U.S. positions in the area. The U.S. Command said it was investigating.

The Tay Ninh battle climaxed 48 hours of the Vietnam war's sharpest fighting this year, with actions up and down the country but notably in the center and just below the demilitarized zone separating North and South Vietnam. These actions subsided today.

Heavy weather over North Vietnam Tuesday again limited U.S. air strikes. Sixty-two missions were flown, mostly against coastal supply targets, States and other nations to get through there was another raid — the fourth — on the Thai Nguyen steel plant 35 miles north of Hanoi.

The heavy ground fighting winging homeward from Guam, included an artillery duel Monday in which the Communists used big artillery pieces for the first time in the war. Among designated them were 152mm guns, the big-est weapons the Reds have used so far.

The 152mm and 122mm guns were fired at U.S. Marine and Army artillery positions just south of the demilitarized zone, and spotters said the fire came from the north. Military spokesmen would not say whether the Red guns were located north of the demilitarized zone, but both 122mm and 152mm pieces can easily reach the U.S. positions from above the zone. Those American positions have already shelled North Vietnamese territory with 175mm guns.

Three Americans were killed and 73 were wounded by the barrages totaling more than 700 rounds which were fired at U.S. positions near Gio Linh, a mile south of the demilitarized zone.

The intensity of the fighting this week was underlined by the U. S. announcement today that casualties in the past two days included 78 U.S. dead, 302 Americans wounded and 829 Communists killed.

This did not include the two American soldiers killed and 10 wounded in the accidental bombing in Tay Ninh.

More than 117 air strikes were flown in that area Tuesday in support of the big battle and skirmishes going on nearby as U.S. troops continued Operation Junction City, the biggest ground sweep of the war.

Attorney Faces Charge of Perjury

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Dean A. Andrews Jr., 44, a round, jive-talking lawyer who says he once represented Lee Harvey Oswald on minor legal matters, faces arraignment today on a perjury charge.

Andrews was indicted last week by the Orleans Parish Grand Jury in its check into Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's Kennedy assassination conspiracy case.

No background of the charge had been released before the hearing.

Criminal Dist. Judge Frank Shea — a Garrison aide before his election to the bench — scheduled Andrews' arraignment.

Andrews, suspended from his post as an assistant district attorney in suburban Jefferson Parish, appeared twice before the grand jury. The indictment for perjury followed his second appearance.

Warren Commission, Andrews said he was contacted by phone by a "voice" he knew as Clay Bertrand following the assassination in Dallas, Tex., Nov. 22, 1963, of President John F. Kennedy. Clay Bertrand asked him to go to Dallas to represent Oswald, he said.

Garrison has charged that Clay L. Shaw, 54, a wealthy retired business executive, used the alias Clay Bertrand. Shaw has denied this.

A three-judge Criminal District Court panel decided last Friday at the conclusion of a four-day hearing that Garrison had produced sufficient evidence to hold Shaw for trial on a charge of conspiring to murder Kennedy.

Unprecedented Peace Bid Still Open

By MERRIMAN SMITH
UPI White House Reporter
WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson's unprecedented personal peace bid to Ho Chi Minh is still open despite its rejection by the North Vietnamese leader, responsible U.S. sources said today.

Johnson, who returned Tuesday night from his fast-moving Guam strategy conference with top U.S. and South Vietnamese leaders, apparently underscored this theme when he said:

"We shall persevere in our efforts to find an honorable peace; until that is achieved, we shall continue to do our duty in Vietnam."

U.S. sources conceded, however, that it was unlikely that Hanoi would do an about-face in the immediate future and come to accept Johnson's letter as a basis for peace negotiations or even more limited talks on de-escalation of the conflict.

The terms Johnson outlined were not disclosed.

Disclosure of the Johnson - Ho correspondence, unique in the many efforts by the United States and other nations to get talks started, came first from Hanoi.

Harsh Rejection
As Johnson's plane was winging homeward from Guam, Hanoi suddenly made public day in which the Communists used big artillery pieces for the first time in the war. Among designated them were 152mm guns, the big-est weapons the Reds have used so far.

Business Tax Incentive Restored

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill restoring major business tax incentives has won Senate Finance Committee approval after being remolded to conform to administration wishes.

But the legislation — scheduled for Senate debate starting April 3, after the Eastern recess — could face stiff opposition on the floor because amendments by the committee to the House version would nearly halve benefits to business.

And Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., says he'll attempt to amend the measure to include repeal of the controversial presidential election campaign financing plan Congress enacted at the end of the 1966 session.

The administration amendments to the tax bill, sponsored by Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., acting Finance Committee chairman, would reduce the revenue loss under the measure by $775 million.

As the bill cleared the House, this loss was estimated at $1.86 billion. It would be $1.085 billion under the Senate committee's version.

The Senate bill would restore the 7 per cent tax credit incentive for machinery or equipment purchases only to that ordered March 10 or later. It would restore accelerated depreciation rates only for those profit-making buildings started after that date.

Winter Grips Sections of Northeast

Winter held its grip on sections of the Northeast today with a driving snow and rain that forced scattered school closings and piled streets with slush. A heavy rain moved into the far Northwest where gale warnings were posted.

At daybreak, large flakes of windswept snow were still falling in the populous New York metropolitan area despite the fact it was the second day of spring.

At 7 a.m., the Weather Bureau reported an accumulation of 3 to 5 inches in New York City with an additional inch or so in the suburbs.

In Suffolk County, N.Y., scattered school closings were reported.

Poughkeepsie, N.Y., about 70 miles north of the city, braced for its third March storm with up to 10 inches forecast for the city.

At 6 a.m. six inches of snow were reported in Middletown, N.Y. Scattered school closings were reported in Orange, Sullivan and Ulster counties about 65 miles northwest of New York City.

A federal court in a sweeping, unprecedented decision today ordered the desegregation next term of all Alabama schools not already under court order and directed state officials to implement the integration ruling.

Entertainment Less Available

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — His orders to crack down on illegal gambling has made "entertainment" less available in Hot Springs, Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said Tuesday.

The governor, speaking before the Southwestern Sales Marketing Executive Council, added, "After all, the law is the law" but "if you can find it, have a good time."

Rockefeller, a multimillionaire, also said he was happy in his new job after being unemployed for 14 years.

Fulbright Wants Halt to Bombings

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J.W. Fulbright said today President Johnson should take the chance that a halt in bombing of North Vietnam will produce peace talks despite Hanoi's rejection of his latest offer.

But Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., a critic with Fulbright of Johnson's Vietnam policies, contended in a statement that the President had attached a new condition requiring that "we have evidence that Hanoi has already ceased infiltration before we stop the bombing."

Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in an interview he feels there is hope for a Soviet initiative by Premier Alexei N. Kosygin toward negotiations despite Ho Chi Minh's refusal to stop infiltration of South Vietnam in exchange for a cessation of air attacks.

"I think it is well worth stopping the bombing to see if there is any substance to Kosygin's statement that if there is a halt talks could proceed," Fulbright said.

Kosygin's statement came during his talks with British Prime Minister Harold Wilson at the time of the February Lunar New Year cease-fire. Johnson's offer to Ho was made before the cease-fire started.

Fulbright called "reasonable" Johnson's offer to Ho to stop the bombing and freeze U.S. forces at their present level as soon as the President was "assured that infiltration into South Vietnam by land and sea has been stopped."

Kennedy also referred to Kosygin's statement that a halt would bring talks. He said "this was confirmed by Ho's letter."

Peck Tells of Trip to Russia

Texarkana banker George Peck, a former Hope resident, brought many interesting highlights of a trip to Russia before a dinner meeting of the Millwood Shrine Club Tuesday night at the Town and Country. Introduced by Jack Lowe, the speaker told of a trip he had made with other members of the Arkansas Bankers' Association as part of a People to People program. This is an effort at creating better understanding among countries through an exchange of visitors in various fields of endeavor.

The trip into the Union of Soviet Socialist Republic, of which "Russia" is only a province, was made in an elaborately decorated airplane. Surprisingly, the view from the plane was not of neat, patch-work quilt fields, but of cultivated ground in a haphazard fashion. Since the government owns all the land, no boundary markers are evidently necessary.

Space Exhibits, Farm Exhibits, and Industrial Exhibits were all stressed on the tour. Many foreign countries were represented on the streets, and "standing in line" seems to be a way of life, Mr. Peck said. As for banking in Russia, there are many differences. For instance, no checks are written there, and there is often a re-evaluation of currency.

Millwood Shrine Club President Hobart Shirley welcomed the group of 60 members and guests, and made several announcements of importance to the Shriners.

A meal of Plantation Catfish was served, and the door prize, a large toaster, was won by Mrs. Frank Douglas.

Five Red Battalions Smashed in Greatest U.S. Victory of War

Johnson to Continue to Seek Peace

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

AP Special Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says he will persist in efforts to seek peace with North Vietnam despite "regrettable rebuffs."

But administration officials say Hanoi's rejection and its release of a personal Johnson proposal for peace talks as a bad sign.

Johnson returned Tuesday night from a two-day Vietnam war conference in Guam. En route home he learned of Hanoi's publication Tuesday of a secret exchange of letters he had with President Ho Chi Minh of North Vietnam six weeks ago.

"We shall persevere in our efforts to find an honorable peace," Johnson said in a brief arrival statement at Andrews Air Force Base, Md. "Until that is achieved, we shall, of course, continue to do our duty in Vietnam."

Officials said the North Vietnamese government has been informed that Johnson's proposal for talks — and for steps to de-escalate the war — is still open. But they saw no prospect of its acceptance anytime soon.

In coming months the President is expected to increase further the military pressure on Communist forces in South Vietnam while stepping up the pounding of North Vietnam. Administration officials had hoped that military losses and bomb damage suffered by the Communists in the past two years would force them to the conference table early this year.

That hope has now been sharply deflated, by Ho's rejection of Johnson's bid, and by Ho's making public the exchange of letters. Officials said they were baffled by the publication.

There was some speculation here that Communist Chinese influence in Hanoi might be responsible, or that Ho might have decided to use the exchange as a means of attacking the Guam conference.

Minor Accidents Investigated

Two accidents were investigated by police yesterday neither resulting in extensive damage. At 4th and Hervey cars driven by Andrew Brown and Ellanora Barwick collided. Damage was small.

Officers Brown and Johnson charged Andrew Brown with failure to yield the right-of-way.

At Second and Main cars driven by Joe Rider and Thomas Hollingsworth collided, minor damage resulting. Officers Ward and Abbot investigated.

Refuses to Say Firings Political

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — The director of the Arkansas Beverage Control Board has refused to say whether the firing against North Vietnamese tar-of three board investigators gets Tuesday, spokesmen said, was politically inspired.

Two of the three told The Pine Bluff Commercial that they were dismissed since Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller took office.

Clyde McCollough of Springfield and Melvin Polk of Morrilton gave political reasons as being the cause for their dismissals. The third, Earl Hodges of Pine Bluff, said he may have a statement on the matter next week.

Alvin Bell, the ABC director, was quoted as saying the board does not have to give cause for dismissals.
